

2020 Membership Form

The Rhinelander Area Silent Trails Association is a group of silent sports enthusiasts that promote the responsible use of lands open to the public for the enjoyment of all with the following goals:

- Promote non-motorized forest trail use, especially by families and youths.
- Enhance and expand recreational trail opportunities.
- Provide opportunities for trail users to help support trail development and maintenance through volunteer time, user fees, fund raisers, etc.
- Obtain grant monies to help finance trail/trailhead improvements.

Membership/Sponsorship will begin when RASTA receives the completed application and the applicable dues/donations. Memberships will expire at the end of 2020.
